Dear REMBAs,
Rutgers Business School's ranking continue to rise. After being a #7 ranking in Finance by Financial Times last October, the Rutgers EMBA program was ranked this January by Ivy Exec #7 among the top 16 schools in the Northeast and #1 for Life Balance (p 6). Congratulations!!
In this issue, you will find numerous REMBA professional updates from CXO positions to entrepreneurial ventures in the food, hospitality and IT industry, to our veterans' achievements. We are building our professional mentoring network, so please make sure to register and share your expertise as a mentor (p 10). Please refer to page 7 to learn more about the REMBA Alumni Association board members, and make sure not to miss our first 2017 Powerhouse Career Evolution event, one of many to come, on Friday, February 10th. This is a great opportunity to reconnect with old pals and meet new ones. The success of the Powerhouse is based on everyone's efforts. We look forward to seeing many of you there!!

Swamy Vasudevan - REMBA 2015

Known as Mr. Cloud or the Real Guru of Cloud Technology, Swamy has been featured many times in the news and has won multiple awards. Last May 2016, Swamy won two awards on behalf of Ericsson. One for Best new product (Mobile) and another for Best deal maker at a Leading lights awards, Big communications event.

Swamy has also moderated a panel discussion with AT&T, Verizon and Telefonica at Openstack summit, Austin in April 2016. The focus was around 'Experiences from the Openstack Cloud Journey'. Today's orchestration and management systems are highly integrated to support a relatively stable CSP business model based on direct relationships with subscribers. SDN/NFV is destined to accelerate changes that are already occurring within CSPs to support new business models such as two-sided models and value based/yield models. This ongoing network evolution marked by SDN and NFV powered by OpenStack is creating a new channel for service agility that is enabling business innovation

Ashley Morgan - REMBA 2017

Ashley is the owner and principal consultant at AM Productions, LLC, a boutique event planning firm specializing in multi day conferences, meetings, trade shows & festivals. www.amproductionsllc.com

"I formed AM Productions to work on more creative and diverse events. At the time, I was a show operations manager at a national non-profit producing six roadshows a year. I had so many ideas that couldn't be implemented at the events I worked on day to day, and I needed an outlet. I began working on fundraising events and receptions and have worked in event operations and marketing in the arts for over a decade now. I truly enjoy the process of creating an exceptional experience and providing a personalized, professional event that delivers the intended message to attendees. In the coming year, I am looking forward to working on events and conferences in new industries with new clients, bringing on new partners to expand services offered, and growing my company to new heights."

REMBA News – Alumni and Students' Stories

Ben Downing – REMBA 2017

Ben Downing enlisted in the Army as a Multichannel Signal Systems Operator (Tactical). A Brooklyn native, he was the honor graduate of his class at Fort Gordon, Georgia, and then deployed to South Korea. He returned to Fort Gordon and completed the Tactical Satellite Operators Course, before being transferred to the U.S. Army Intelligence Center at Fort Huachuca, Arizona where he served three years with the 11th Signal Brigade. Due to his technical expertise and interest in emerging communications technology, Ben was chosen to be one of the first to work in a program now known as COTS or "Commercial off the Shelf Technology." Following a deployment to South Korea with 1st Battalion, 43rd Air Defense Artillery, Ben received orders to Turkey where while working as a liaison alongside NATO counterparts from a host of different nations in a wide range of assignments Ben learned to speak Turkish fluently. In 2008, he was deployed to Iraq with the 3rd Battalion, 142nd Assault Helicopter Battalion where he was promoted to the rank of Staff Sergeant. Upon his return to the U.S., Ben was assigned to the Army's Warrior Transition Unit at Fort Dix, NJ and Community Based Warrior Transition Unit in Concord, Massachusetts. It was during this period that he applied to and was accepted into a financial training program that focused on identifying combat veterans with an aptitude for finance and training them for employment in the industry. After completing an internship at UBS he accepted an offer from Drexel Hamilton where he is currently a Vice President, capital markets. In 2013, he returned from another tour of duty in Afghanistan, and he is now part of the REMBA class of 2017.

Evelyn Chang – REMBA 2018

Along with her full-time job as a Quality & Compliance Manager with G&W Laboratories, a pharmaceutical generic drug maker, Evelyn is also the owner of Hotkist Creation by Evelyn, a company that specializes in designing, baking and decorating cakes, cupcakes, cake pops, all occasion cakes, and party favors that artistically reflect ideas, personalities, themes that are unique to each client.

"I am a third generation of a family of culinary & pastry chefs, master bakers and creative cake decorators. My family operated a bakery business for nearly five decades (F. Quiñal Store and Bakery, est. 1949, Cagayan de Oro City, Philippines). Baking and decorating cakes is one of my few hobbies. I am mostly a self-taught cake decorator. I attended a few cake decorating classes from the Food Network's Champions and from the Institute of Culinary Education in NYC, as well as a few seminars to learn new tools and new sugar techniques, such as modeling chocolate, gelatin, and isomalts. We guarantee that our products not only look good, but also taste good for only the freshest and finest ingredients are used. I share all my artistic creations on my blog: <http://hotkistcreations.blogspot.com>." Berkeley Heights, NJ.

Ian Goldberg – REMBA 2004

Last year Ian Goldberg launched a SportsTech venture called iSport360, Inc. "After eight months, this mobile platform for sports parents and coaches to share player feedback surpassed

1,200 users. The company's sports-parenting news letter now reaches 15,000 readers. Big news for 2017 is that on January 12th, the iSport360 app launched in the App Stores. And by February 1, iSport360 plans to close on its second round of funding. For those with kids in youth sports, please download and give it a try... Would love your EMBA feedback. <https://www.isport360.com/> "

Parag Harolikar – REMBA 2010

Parag recently launched a new venture in India called COHUM, India's first complete wearable ID and digital medical emergency system:

www.cohum.co. "While there are various solutions available in the US and other countries, there are no reliable and comprehensive solutions in India.

There are also several unique challenges specific to India that need to be considered. My mother-in-law fell on her face during her morning walk one day and was unable to speak as a result. She did not have any identification on her and tried calling home, but was unsuccessful. Fortunately after some time someone helped her reach home, which was only 10-15 minutes away. If she was taken directly to a hospital we would not have known for quite some time perhaps. These problems occur very frequently in India - people don't carry identification; phone calls don't go through or are ignored; the vulnerable are robbed; the list goes on. We realized that identification was a simpler problem to solve - the bigger problem was the non-availability of medical information to start medical treatment. COHUM was established to solve a real problem."

Ralph Shulberg – REMBA 2015 - A story by classmate Chris Astle

"En route to Manhattan this morning (Nov 14, 2016), I parked in my familiar lot, proceeded to exit my vehicle and accidentally launched my cell phone across the unforgiving pavement. Hesitantly picking it up, my fears were confirmed, I just shattered my screen. I finally arrived at my office and took a moment to collect myself. Relying on the strength of my EMBA network for support, I knew one had to be close by. It suddenly dawned on me and I knew just who to call, Ralph Shulberg's "SmartBalance". I knew that his mobile command center was stationed just outside of Grand Central. I launched a call for help via his website from my office laptop and by 12:30pm this afternoon, my iPhone was repaired by one of his technicians. Behind the scenes Ralph also saw the call for help come in and followed up with me shortly after to ensure my repair was a success. Indeed it was! We caught up for a moment and exchanged post EMBA updates. Ralph also shared with me the successful growth his SmartBalance business is experiencing and the exciting direction he is headed with it (I will let him share that with you though). I shared the aforementioned experience with you, noting the importance of our network and that no matter where we are in our journey, there will always be a trusted friend and EMBA along the way". <http://www.smartbalance.com/>
