

Teaching Waiver Form

(Complete this form if you are requesting to waive the teaching requirement.)

In order to graduate, a student must teach at least one course in RBS in the area in which he or she is earning a doctoral degree. Students may request to waive this requirement by consulting, and receiving approval from their department chair, doctoral coordinator, and advisor. Once signatures are obtained, please submit this form to the Ph.D. in Management office for the program director's final approval.
